COLUMBUS CROWDED FOR STATE-ILLINOIS GAME

TOLEDO'S VICIOUS MONSTER ATTACKS TWO MORE WOMEN

Club Killer Is at Liberty Despite Efforts of 500 Volunteers.

LEAPS FROM ROOF, ESCAPES PURSUERS

Believe Lunatic Escaped
From State Hospital
Causes Terror.

Toledo, Nov. 21.—Toledo's vicious monster, who has been terrorizing women residing in the west end section of the city, was still at liberty today, in spite of all efforts made by police, relief forces by some 500 volunteers to catch him, after he had attacked two more women last night, with his club.

Last night's double attacks bring the record of the believed maniac to eight attacks. Two of the women are dead, while several of the others are in a serious condition. Last night's victims were Mrs. Catherine Knight, 23, and Miss Pauline Winover, 20.

Mrs. Knight was attacked as she stepped from her kitchen to empty a pail of garbage. She says she saw the form of the monster just as he was bringing his club down on her head, but too late to dodge the blow or scream for help. She then staggered back into the kitchen and fell in a faint. Her groans attracted her husband's attention, but the search for the club killer proved fruitless.

Mrs. Knight lives on City Park ave.

Leaps From Roof To Roof
Shortly afterwards he appeared on Adams st., near Twelfth. Here he attempted to club Miss Pauline Winover, 20, sitting in Arthur Hartsfield's automobile. Hatfield had just stepped into a nearby store, when the monster reached into the machine and struck Miss Winover, the blow being stopped by hitting the ton of the sedan. The girl screamed and the clubber fled up Twelfth street and darted into an alley.

He ascended an open stairway to a three-story building and swung himself onto the roof. Closely pursued, the monster then ran to the edge of the roof and jumped to the roof of an adjoining building from which he dropped through an airway to the street below and made his escape.

That a lunatic, recently escaped from the state hospital, is responsible for the reign of terror existing here is the main theory on which police are working today.

A city-wide search is being made for this man, whose description tallies closely with the meager portrait the police have of the clubber.

Chief of Police Jennings said today he would accept the offer made by the American Legion to furnish 500 ex-servicemen to assist in the man hunt, as well as accept the offer of the sheriff to loan a score of deputies.

JUNIOR CHURCH IS ORGANIZED HERE

Innovation In Methodist Church Is Started
By Rev. Collier

Sunday morning will be the beginning of a new church. The Junior church of the First Methodist Episcopal church will have its first meeting.

The membership of this church will be made up of boys and girls under 12 years of age. Seats will be reserved for them, as they will sit together.

The pastor of the Junior church will preach to the boys and girls every Sunday morning. The topic of the Sunday morning sermon is "An Ear of Corn." After the second hymn the Junior church will go down stairs and there organize Junior Epworth League with all departments and officers.

Each Sunday during the time of the sermon to grown ups in the auditorium the boys and girls will have a good time in their room. Interesting things will be studied; classes will be formed according to age; socials will be planned and all departments will work.

Miss Mildred Hirsch has been elected superintendent of the Junior League. Several assistants will aid her. The boys and girls will be dismissed at the same time as the service in the auditorium so that they can go home with their parents if so desired.

The Junior church has been a part of Dr. Collier's ministry for nine years and it has proved most successful in interesting boys and girls in the church.

Office Building Will Be Near State House

Columbus, Nov. 21.—Ending a deadlock lasting several months, the state legislative advisory committee, by a vote of 4 to 2, today approved the unanimous recommendation of the state building commission that the proposed $4,000,000 state office building be erected on South Third street, directly opposite the state house grounds.

Finley's Famous Melody Band Will Broadcast From WEAR

Finley's Melody band, Salem's ten piece orchestra which has been making a name for itself in the musical world, will broadcast from Station WEAR, Cleveland, from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Monday.

Radios throughout this city will be tuned in to hear this band, for it is considered a recognition of Salem's musical progress to have one of its organizations invited to broadcast a program. This will be a feature of Cleveland's Community fund campaign and it probably will be the last opportunity to hear a Salem orchestra broadcast.

BUILDING PERMITS TO EXCEED $200,000

Records Reveal 74 Permits
Have Been Issued Here
Since April 1.

Indications are that building operations authorized by building permits issued by Mayor George E. Russell will run over the $200,000 mark before the end of the year.

To date, since April when permits were first issued, the 74 permits show buildings and improvements are estimated to cost about $150,000. Previous to April it is estimated that at least $35,000 worth of more building was started, though no actual check of this can be made. Total building operations for the year will thus aggregate around the $200,000 mark.

Since Oct. 1 the mayor has issued 12 permits, aggregating $25,250, showing that the coming of fall has not stopped building operations at all. Three of these permits have been issued since Nov. 1. These 12 permits are:

W. W. Kyle, South Lundy st., shop, $400; W. E. Davis, Madison ave., garage, $125; M. E. Parr, High and Garfield, improvement to house, $200; J. Everett, Evans st., garage, $125; Howard Chamberlain, North Union ave., house, $4,000; Bahm Brothers, Main st., improvement to store room, $9,000; Belle Stewart, Woodland ave., improvement to house, $500; Leslie Whinnery, Evans st., house, $2,000; W. H. Ritz, Franklin ave., porch, $300; Byron Zimmerman, Summit st., house, $2,000; W. J. Hilliard, Washington st., house and garage, $3,000; R. F. White, West Tenth st., house, $2,500.

Mayor Russell says that people are, in general, strictly obeying the law requiring a permit to build before any improvement or new building, over $100 in value, may be started. The law has had a sufficient try-out, and the police may soon start checking up to see that all builders are obeying the law, passed by council about the first of the year.

The primary purpose of the law is to have a check on all buildings so that tax returns may be compared with the permits, and cause all valuation to appear on the tax duplicate.

MRS. DAVID BEARD, 77, DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Lucy Ann Beard, 77, widow of David Beard, a resident of Columbus for more than 50 years, dropped dead about 3:20 p. m. Friday at the home of her son, C. E. Beard, near trouble is given as the cause of death. Mrs. Beard had just come from work and was closing a door when stricken.

Mrs. Beard, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Miller, pioneer residents of Mahoning county, was born in Bowser township Sept. 6, 1848.

Her husband, David Beard, basket and stephadder manufacturer, died four years ago, and since that time she had lived with her son. She was a member of the English Lutheran church. Surviving are her son and one sister, Rosetta Donges, of Cleveland.

The funeral will be at 2 p. m. Monday at the Lutheran church. Interment in the Columbian cemetery.

Stadium Stowaways Busy at Night

Columbus, Nov. 21.—"I never had such a night in my life," M. J. Clifford, night watchman at the $2,000,000 Ohio stadium related today.

He was referring to stadium stowaways. "They climbed the fences at night long, Clifford said. "We patrolled the stadium continuously and put out a lot of them. But a lot of them hid so well we never found them."

United States soldiers from Fort Hayes will comb the stadium for the stowaways just before the big bowl is opened for admission.

More than 200 men and boys camped around bon fires all night, to be first in line today when standing room tickets go on sale.

BOYS SENTENCED TO REFORMATORY

Salem Brothers Convicted
Of Burglary, Now Face
Other Charges

Lisbon, Nov. 21.—Immediately after Judge James G. Moore sentenced Raymond and Paul McCave of Salem to from one to 15 years in the Ohio reformatory at Mansfield, Raymond McCave was placed under arrest in the court room on a charge of stealing poultry from the premises of James Huston, Hephaer Hollow, Center township, on or about the night of Oct. 1.

An hour later a similar charge was filed against Paul McCave. On these two charges the young men were released under $1,000 bond.

As soon as Judge Moore pronounced sentence on these young men following their conviction by a jury in common pleas recently on a charge of attempted robbery, Attorney K. L. C. bourn of Salem gave notice of appeal, and a stay of execution of sentence was granted by the court, and bond placed at $1,000 in order to give counsel for the young men time to prepare the bill of exceptions.

"It is far from being a pleasant duty of the court to sentence young men to the penitentiary," the court said in passing sentence. "I have given this case much thought and study. The court cannot see why you walked from Washingtonville to Salem, leaving your automobile in Salem."

The McCave brothers were indicted by the last grand jury for the attempted burglary of a gas filling station in the East End of Salem on the Cox highway. They were arrested at that time by Constable Earl Ritchie of Salem.

Bond has been given in the stay of execution, and also on the charge of stealing chickens.

Burglars Carry Away Safe Containing $300

Norwalk, O., Nov. 21.—Burglars early today carried away a 1,000 pound safe containing $300 and valuable records from the office of the Norwalk Produce company.

An automobile truck of the company was found abandoned on the outskirts of the city, but the safe has not been located. This is the second robbery of this kind committed here this fall.

BRITAIN'S ROYAL FAMILY PAYS ITS HOMAGE TO QUEEN

Private Funeral Services
For Queen Alexandra Held Today.

ENTIRE EMPIRE
IS IN MOURNING

Coffin Being Shared From Favorite Tree On the Queen's Estate.

London, Nov. 21.—Queen Alexandra will be buried from Westminster Abbey, Great Britain shrine, on Friday.

Lord Cromer, Lord Chamberlain to King George, made public this decision today.

The funeral services will be held at 11:30 on Friday, and the ceremonies will be those of a state funeral. Queen Alexandra will be buried at Windsor, it was announced.

London, Nov. 21.—An empire sorrowed today for the passing of Queen Alexandra, most beloved of England's queens since Elizabeth.

Overcast skies and a bleak mist enshrouding the palace at Sandringham where the body of her majesty lies in state, expressed the mood of the nation which since the melancholy announcement yesterday had talked of nothing else.

Within the palace Lord Chamberlain in conference with the king discussed and completed arrangements for the funeral.

Beyond the gates in a little house the dull tapping of carpenter's hammers at work on the royal coffin provided a lugubrious accompaniment for the general grief.

The coffin is being shaped from the trunk of a pine tree which the queen had watched grow from a fragile sprout to a giant towering over the regal mansion in which she dwelt. It was said to have been her favorite tree of all the multitude of trees on her estate.

The feeling of personal loss in the death of the queen extends to all classes.

Royal Family Pays Homage

Sandringham, Eng., Nov. 21.—Great Britain's royal family today paid its respects and homage to the dead Queen Mother Alexandra.

The king and queen, the Princess Royal, Queen Maud of Norway, the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York and other members of the royal family gathered at the pier of Queen Alexandra for private funeral services.

Rev. A. C. H. Grant, chaplain to Queen Alexandra, read the service for the dead, while the king and the members of the royal household knelt in reverence. The king, it is understood, will probably grant the request of Queen Alexandra's retainers and the villagers of Sandringham that the body of the dowager queen lie in state in the hall room at Sandringham house, while her subjects are allowed to view the body.

The hall room at Sandringham has many happy associations for the plain folk of this town, for it was here at Christmas time that the queen mother gave a great annual Christmas party for her tenants.

SALEM LIBRARIAN WILL LEAVE CITY

Miss Margaret Vinton Has Tendered Resignation
To Library Board.

Miss Margaret Vinton, for the past three years librarian at the Salem Public Library, McKinley ave., has handed her resignation to the board of trustees, she stated Saturday.

She asks to be relieved of her duties at Dec. 29, so that she may spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Springfield, Missouri. The trustees have held no meeting yet to consider her resignation, but expect to next week.

No future plans were announced by Miss Vinton. She intends to take an extended vacation before assuming any position.

DRIVER ON TRIAL FOR MAN'S DEATH

Youngstown, Nov. 21.—Victor Olson, wealthy contractor, is being tried here on a manslaughter charge in connection with the death of C. M. Alldorfer, principal of Garfield school, killed in a collision between his car and that of Olson's. Witnesses testified the contractor failed to regard a boulevard stop sign.

Beloit Flappers Are Sent Home To Remove Paint And Rouge

Six Eighth Grade Girls Decide to Give Their Teacher
A Thrill, Then Mothers Use Scrub Brush.

Six would-be Beloit flappers had their wings cut Thursday. The six students of the eighth grade, and like most girls of that age, decided that they would emulate their older sisters, and dab on powder and rouge, decorations which they had always been forbidden to use.

They were their usual selves when they left home in the morning. But arriving at school early, they decided to fix up a nice surprise for Percy Overton, their new instructor, and also to make the rest of the girls blink their eyes in approval or horror. In short, these flappers were after a new thrill.

Gave Teacher A Thrill
Plenty of powder and rouge was applied, and then lipsticks were liberally used. The girls made the mistake of applying it too thick, as flappers new to the game have a tendency to do, so they gave their teacher and fellow students a greater thrill than they expected.

Overton took one look at the painted lassies in front of him and suspended classes for one hour. The girls confessed.

Then he ordered each girl to go to her home and wash off the accursed paints which adorned her profiles.

As each girl was about to leave, he cautioned and said:

"You go home and show this work to your parents; if they allow you to paint up each morning, do it at home and there will be no objections here, but you cannot put one over on your parents or us either by painting up after you come to school."

Scrub Brush Used
The instructor again considered, and decided to accompany each girl home so that she would not rub off the decoration before her parents, especially her mother, might glimpse it.

One mother took one look at her flapper daughter, gasped, grabbed daughter by the shoulders, and doused

OHIO DOPE RING BARED BY NURSE

Ring Served 10,000 Addicts
In Three States; Branch
In Massillon.

Pittsburg, Nov. 21.—Federal narcotic agents today delved deeper into their investigation of a gigantic dope ring, said to be serving 10,000 addicts in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia, and which is claimed by Miss Louise Anderson, alleged trained nurse and confessor to information uncovering the ring, to have headquarters in two West Virginia and Ohio cities.

According to narcotic agents, Miss Anderson implicated a local bootlegger in the ring, which she is alleged to have admitted was furnished her in cocaine, morphine and other drugs to addicts in the tri-state district. The ring has branches in Massillon, and Fairmount and Clarksburg, West Virginia, agents say she admitted.

The woman was employed by the ring to secure the drugs in Cleveland and bring them to Pittsburg in an automobile, according to her story to agents. Cleveland's source is in Canada, and the dope is brought across Lake Erie, she said.

Rains Or Snows For Thanksgiving Week

Washington, Nov. 21.—Weather outlook for the period Nov. 23 to 28, inclusive:

Ohio Valley—Period of rains toward the middle of the week and again toward the end of the week. Moderately cold the first half and moderate temperatures the latter half.

Region of Great Lakes—Period of rains or snows toward the middle and again toward the end of the week. Moderately cold the first half and near normal temperatures thereafter.

Salem Merchants Will Display Christmas Stocks Earlier

Salem merchants have decided to move forward this year, the date of display of their complete holiday Christmas stocks.

In past years it has been the custom of merchants in this city, as well as in others, to defer the display of their complete stocks of special Christmas merchandise until early in December. This year the merchants decided to take advantage of the nation-wide sweep toward early season gift buying.

Analysis of last year's Christmas shopping records in a number of representative Ohio cities, made by the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants, discloses a remarkable tendency during the last two or three years, on the part of careful buyers, to make their Christmas purchases well in advance of the usual Christmas shopping rush season.

her head in the sink. She then applied the scrub brush, generally used to anoint floors, and off came the emblems of assorted flapperdom.

Every girl appeared at school an hour later, somewhat abashed, and with faces free from encumbrances, indicating that all their mothers had been of the same opinion.

If Beloit girls must flap, they must start at home and not at school.

Famous Turtle Back In Columbus

Columbus, Nov. 21.—Hilback, the 40 year old turtle, whose custody for each succeeding year goes to the winner of the annual State-Indiana football game, was back in Columbus today.

The turtle was brought here by a committee of Sachem, the Illinois Junior Honorary society, a committee of Backet and Dippers, the corresponding Ohio State society, welcomed the mascot.

If Ohio State wins this afternoon, Hilback will make his home in Columbus until the next Illinois game. If Grange galls off with the bacon, Hilback goes back to Urbana, Ill.

Hilback will parade in the stadium at 1:30 p. m.

SCHOOLS ARE HOPE OF OUR COUNTRY, SAYS DR. COLLIER

Education Week Is Closed
With Fourth St. Grade School Program.

That the public schools are the hope of our country was the opinion voiced by Dr. E. S. Collier, pastor of the M. E. church, in a talk Friday afternoon at the East Fourth st. school.

The program at this school was the final event in the observance of Education Week here in the public schools.

Dr. Collier paid a fine tribute to the schools of Salem and the loyalty of the parents who have responded in such large numbers to the invitation to visit the schools.

"The schools will never fail with the parents back of them, forming a great bulwark of loyalty, interest and appreciation," he said.

"The desire for education—in the heart of the mother—is a great inspiration to the child to do his best and embrace the wonderful opportunity for education offered by the schools. The attitude of the mother toward the school has much to do with the attitude of the child."

Dr. Collier urged co-operation of the home with the school and especially in matters of discipline.

This program was presented in Room 6, which was filled to its capacity. Miss Marjorie Fickett, teacher of the Fifth and Sixth grades, delighted her audience with a singing song and whistling.

Miss Martha Justice, principal of this school, spoke on "School Aims" and emphasized the teaching of health, and the importance of getting over to the children the laws of health and the value of vegetables, fruit and milk in the diet.

In the illustration the children from grades 1, 2 and 3, gave their Health Jingles.

Two health plays, "Six Year Molars" and "Milk for All the World" were presented by children of the Fourth grades. Health songs were sung by children of the Fifth grade.

The parents visited the class rooms and inspected the work of the pupils. At least 150 visitors were interested in the Visiting day at this school.

Friday afternoon Paul and Raymond McCave, Salem youths, following their arraignment in common pleas court on an old robbery charge, were arrested for stealing chickens, and were released under bond on that charge.

They are believed by police to be members of the Salem gang which has been operating in the county.

The police and county authorities are still continuing their investigations to see if the seven arrested constitute the entire gang.

Taxi Strikebreaker Fired On, Escapes

Boston, Nov. 21.—A taxicab driven by a strikebreaker was fired on early today in the Back Bay.

The passengers, Charles C. Bessett, Jr., Harvard graduate, of Washington, D. C., and a woman companion, as well as the driver, Allan M. McKnight, escaped the bullets.

The shooting was done by two men standing in the trolley car reservation at Commonwealth ave. and St. Mary's st.

FAREWELL GAME
OF RED GRANGE

Field Is Dry Day Is Warm
But Both Coaches Give Out Pessimism

Columbus, Nov. 21.—The day that is to mark the passing of Red Grange from the college football arena broke with a promise of ideal weather for the historical event.

The thousands of homecoming old grads, fans, feature writers and sport scribes were cheered with a perfect dawn, with not a cloud in sight. A balmy breeze was blowing.

"A dry field, a warm day" breathed the roosters. "A day made for Red Grange."

"No mind for Elmer Merck," exulted Ohio State followers. The Buckeye fans haven't lost faith in the Cedar Rapids boy.

Meanwhile, as is usual in best in varsity circles, the coaches of both the Illinois and Ohio State teams were filled with gloom.

Despite the fact that Grange was reported to be in the best condition of his gliding career, Coach Zuppke has taken a pessimistic view of the outcome.

"Ohio State was an excellent team," he said. "A tie score would tickle us to death."

Dr. John W. Wilce, pointed to Pennsylvania's scalp hanging from the Illinois belt.

"We know what we are up against," he said.

All hotels were filled last night, the overflow being taken care of by fraternities, houses and private homes. At the Hartman theater, 50 chorus girls who lost their rooms at hotels when the football fans swooped down on the city, slept on cots back of the stage.

While everybody wanted to see Grange today, in his final college football game, there was no less interest in the Wheaton star's future plans.

It was generally taken for granted that Red would make some sort of announcement after today's game. Grange himself protested he would have nothing to say.

There is no doubt that Grange will be approached with flattering offers after today's game. It is known that several of the big professional football league teams will try to land the crimson rambler.

University authorities are confident that all Big Ten conference attendance records will be broken here today. Some estimated the probable attendance as high as $5,000.

SEVEN ARE LINKED WITH BANDIT GANG

Fred Taylor Arrested At Home Here By Sheriff;
Taken to Lisbon.

Three more members of the alleged Salem gang of bandits and chicken thieves were taken into custody Friday and Saturday night by Sheriff George Wright and his deputies.

Fred Taylor was taken from bed at his home here late last night, and the county officers took him to the county jail. He will be given a hearing today either in a Lisbon court or will be brought back to Mayor George E. Russell's court here for arraignment.

Taylor is charged with complicity in the robberies alleged to have been participated in by Charles Rogers, Chalmer Votaw, Shelby Carlisle, and Harold Thompson, the four members of the gang who are in jail at Lisbon.

Friday afternoon Paul and Raymond McCave, Salem youths, following their arraignment in common pleas court on an old robbery charge, were arrested for stealing chickens, and were released under bond on that charge.

They are believed by police to be members of the Salem gang which has been operating in the county.

The police and county authorities are still continuing their investigations to see if the seven arrested constitute the entire gang.

THE RED CROSS

The selection of Armistice day for the opening of the annual membership enrollment campaign of the American Red Cross is a particularly happy one, as it served to bring to mind, far more vividly than we otherwise might recall it, the wonderful work of this great organization in behalf of humanity.

It was but a few years ago that re port of the marvelous activities on the battlefields of Northern France were coming back to us. What it meant—all that it meant—to the boys over there, they and they alone are able to tell, so much more did it mean to them than it possibly could to those of us who know not by personal experience of the horrors of war.

President Coolidge, in his appeal for support of the enrollment, calls attention to the fact that there is yet need for work such as that of the Red Cross in ministering to the main tained and disabled who came out of the war. "We can not evade, we can not forget," the president said, "the re sponsibilities which are ours while a single wound of that war remains un healed. Our work has still to be done until we reach that plane where we ask, are there no others who need help?" and the answer shall be

"there are no others."

"It is one of the encouraging, the hopeful things in this work of bring ing sunlight to dissipate the cloudy aftermath of war that we as a people and a government have the helpful and reassuring service of the Amer ican Red Cross."

But great as have been the works and accomplishments of the Red Cross in time of war, they have been no less pronounced in times of peace.

No matter when or whence the call for aid may come, no matter from whom, there has ever been quick re sponse by Red Cross workers. To the Red Cross, kind, even and color are alike. In its work for humanity it succors all and thus it by right should have the support of all. It of fers its record of the past as an earn est of what will be its record for the future, its one request being that it be given the moral support of the public and the financial support nec essary to enable it to carry on.

THE CARELESS HUNTER

With the opening of the fall hunt ing season each year men and boys untrained in the use of firearms, rush to the woods and fields. And each year many lives are sacrificed, many people painfully injured. The care less hunter is a close rival of the careless driver in the bloody record made year after year. All over the country the record is the same. Ohio has had many funerals as a result of the careless hunters as has every other state.

The untrained hunter, unfamiliar with the dangers of hunting, is a men ace to all forms of life while he is out.

He does his thinking after he has used the gun. He never stops to con sider the others are hunting, that some care must be observed in shoot ing, that lives may be placed in jeo norance and carelessness, many times to utter stupidity. The man who does not understand how to use a gun properly has no business in the big outdoors with one. He should be stopped as a public menace.

Spotted Fever
Vaccine

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Therapeutic circles are attach ing no small amount of importance to a brochure on spotted fever vac cine recently published by the Unit ed States Public Health Service. This work, prepared by Dr. R. Spencer and R. R. Parker, surgeon and special expert, respectively, of the service, holds promise of important results in the immunizing of persons against this disease which hitherto has been fatal to most of its victims.

Spotted fever is peculiar to one sec tion only. It occurs nowhere but in the Northwestern States, Idaho and Montana are its principal foci. Al though cases have been found in other Northwestern States, in Mon tana and Idaho it is found in two or three zones, the chief one being the Bitterroot Valley in Montana. In these zones death rates vary, a pecu liar phenomenon which shows that the disease is not constant in its ac tions. It may be that it is suscep tible to different climates. In Bitter root Valley 90 per cent of the cases are fatal.

The disease is carried by ticks which live on large and small ani mals, including domestic beasts. It appears only in spring and summer, at which times ticks abound. It is not fatal to animals, laboratory ani mals being the sole exception. It is not contagious in the sense that one person may convey it to another, the presence of the tick being necessary for contraction.

It is less fatal in children, some thing that has not been explained.
There is no specific in curing it. Most of the cases that have recovered have been persons who developed a natu ral immunity to it.

It begins with a fever. Following the incubation a rash appears on the second or third day. This rash breaks out all over the body. The pa tient, unless he develops the immu nity spoken of, usually dies sometime between the fifth and tenth days.
These facts, and the character of the disease appeared in medical annals some 40 years ago but prior to the findings of Spencer and Parker there was nothing of note discovered in its treatment or prevention.

Three men, Dr. T. B. McClintock, and two laboratory assistants of the Public Health Service, have died in the work of investigation. These men were working in the laboratory maintained by the service at Hamil ton, Mont., when they were stricken.
Dr. McClintock, desiring to be brought east again, was taken as far as Chi cago, where he died. No one in his company caught the disease, further proof that it is not contagious.

With the construction of roads through the zones in which spotted fever occurs, the danger of additional exposures arises. These roads cut across the tick infested territory and tourists will be threatened. Hence the work of Spencer and Parker is hailed by medical men. Through the use of the vaccine the disease may be controlled or prevented. At least there is hope of this being brought about.

These men have shown that guinea pigs could be immunized against spot ted fever. Their recent experiments show that this vaccine also will pro tect monkeys and that it will confer immunity upon man.

Questions And Answers

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

The great information plant maintained by Frederic J. Haskin in Washington, D. C., has been described as an unofficial branch of the gov ernment. It carries the results of millions of dollars' worth of federal in vestigations to the people the moment they are ready, and without expen se to either the people or the government. Newspapers maintain this organ ization and give its services free to their readers. Only a few of the ques tions and answers are published. The great volume of information is sent direct to inquirers. The Bureau's research is not confined to the federal departments. Its field is the world and its experts can answer any question of fact that you ask. You are entitled to the service. Use it.
Address your inquiry to The Salem News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C. Enclose two cents in stamps for

Q. Why does hair turn gray? T. N. S.

A. Dr. L. A. Hausman says that it is because of the failure of the little cells which form the cortex of the hair down in the base of the hair fol licle and around the papilla to deposit pigment material. He asserts, there fore, that gray hair is never produced over night.

Q. What is the proper length of golf clubs for a man five feet nine inches tall? B. H. S.

A. The wooden clubs, 43 inches, for mid iron, 38 inches; and amateur, 37 inches.

Q. Is it true that Queen Isabella's jewels are to be brought to America?
H. A. R.

A. It is reported that the famous jewel casket and its contents which Queen Isabella pawned in order to provide the funds which enabled Col umbus to discover America will be sent to the sesqui-centennial exposi tion at Philadelphia by Spain.

Q. Is the autumnal equinox colder than the vernal and if so why? R. H.

A. The autumnal equinox is warm er, not colder, than the vernal in practically all of the continental United States and other places of middle to high latitudes. The reason for this is that the temperature con ditions at any locality always lag be hind the changing amounts of heat received by the locality from the sun in the course of its annual journey from winter solstice to summer sol stice and return. In New Jersey, for example, the heating effect of the sunshine is at a minimum on Dec.
22, each year, but the lowest temper ature of the winter occurs fully a month later, on Jan. 25. The greatest solar heating occurs at the summer solstice, June 22, but the highest av erage temperatures fall about the end of July. The autumnal equinox, Sept.

22, occurs, therefore, only about 50 days after the highest temperatures of the year, whereas the vernal equinox, March 21, is separated from the time of highest by fully 130 days and is separated only about 50 days from the coldest period of the year.

Q. How many immigrants came to the United States during July and how were they distributed through out the United States? C. G.

A. Of the 18,509 immigrant aliens admitted during July 4226 were em igrating to reside permanently in the state of New York, 1215 in California, 1207 in Illinois, 1632 in Massachu setts, 1975 in Michigan, 1080 in Penn sylvania, and 1793 in Texas. Over 96 per cent of the aliens intending to reside permanently in Texas were Mexicans.

Q. How big do locusts grow to be?
S. T. S.

A. In certain parts of Africa, the locusts attain a length of four inches and feed on mice.

Q. Is there any wood used in the Eiffel tower? D. K. C.

A. Wood was not used in the con struction of the Eiffel tower. It is built entirely of iron and rests on masonry foundations. Glass is used to enclose certain rooms reserved for special purposes.

Q. How many inhabitants has Greece? G. B.

A. The population of Greece in 1920 was 5,447,077.

SMALLPOX HALTS FAITH HEALERS

Columbus, Nov. 21.—As a precautionary measure, designed to prevent further spread of smallpox, the "Glory Barn," a local evangelistic tabernacle, is closed today by order of city health commissioner, J. A. Beer.

Many scores of Columbus residents have professed either cure, or relief from physical ailments, at religious services in the "Glory Barn" where Rev. Dr. Sproul, evangelist, and his assistants, administered "spiritual healing."

Commissioner Beer stated that the closing of the tabernacle is only temporary. Persons who had attended services there since Nov. 1, last, were requested by Dr. Beer to submit immediately to vaccination. It was stated that C. C. Fitch, secretary to Sproul, Mrs. Fitch, the secretary's wife and Robert Wert, Columbus, who attended services at "Glory Barn" were quarantined because they were ill with smallpox.

TAX RATES RECUCED IN MANY DISTRICTS

Salem's Rate Is Slightly Higher for 1926; Some Remain Same

Taxes in 47 different taxing districts of Columbiana county have been decreased for 1926, and increases have been made in 13 districts. In four districts the rate for 1926 will remain the same as it was during 1925.

These facts have just been disclosed by County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton, and upon completion of the tax rate sheet for the new year. The rate is based upon the requirements of the different districts as shown by the budgets filed with the county auditor by municipal, village, township and city and township school authorities.

The four districts where the rate will remain the same in 1926 as it was in 1925 are Madison school district No. 1; Goshen school district; Butler township; Salem township and Washingtonville corporation.

In East Liverpool city, the rate last year was 20.90 and in 1926 will be 20.50.

On account of a bond issue being approved by the electors in New Waterford at the November election, the rate for that district has been increased from 20 to 25.30.

East Palestine has had a decline in its rate from 23.60 to 22.90 and Wellsville which this year paid 23.20 for 1925 has been reduced to 22.70. However, this is the highest rate that is being paid in any of the 70 taxing districts of the county.

Columbiana village which had a rate during 1925 of 23.10 will pay on a basis of 21.40 during the 1926 term. In Salineville village, the rate of 24.20 for 1925 has been reduced to 23.20 for 1926. Perhaps the heaviest decline in the rate is shown in the Lisbon village rate which during the last fiscal year had been 25.60 and this has been reduced to 23.20 for 1926.

A marked decrease is also shown in the rate for the village of Leetonia, although a bond issue for sewage purposes was approved by the electors of that taxing district at the recent election. The 1925 rate for Leetonia was 22.30 and this has been decreased to 20.60 for 1926.

In the Hanover district, where a three mill levy was approved at the last election for school purposes, this being the first time an additional three mills for this purpose was ever sought, the rate has been increased from 15.60 to 19.80.

Only a slight increase has been made in the rate for Salem city this being advanced from 20.10 for the last year to 20.50 for 1926.

All tax rates are made out in accordance to the requirements of the different districts and from the budget sheets filed with the county auditor by local authorities. The new rates will apply to the payment of taxes which become due in December, but the time for payment of which has been extended by the county commissioners until Jan. 20.

CRYSTAL BLOCK COAL

FUEL THAT GOES FARTHER

Seven tons of our best coal will heat the average two-story house all winter in place of nine or ten tons of ordinary fuel.

Some folks call it the "lazy man's fuel" because you only have to fire your furnace once in the morning and once in the evening—and clean out the ash pit once a week.

Use this coal and you'll have a warm house all the time—but no soot nor clinkers—and the wife will never need to touch the furnace.

Marriage Licenses

Among the couples granted marriage licenses at New Cumberland, Va., the last week are:

Oliver Catherine Devan, Lisbon, and Oliver Everett Chilson, of Kensington, Pa.; Ada Eibelyn Schochelen, of Leontia, and William Leroy James, of Lisbon, and Bernice Ingledue, of Lisbon, and John Allen Woods, East Livon, Pa.

Dorothy M. Winstanley, of Sebring, and Paul L. Smith, of Canton, have been granted a marriage license at Youngstown.

Minerva A. Yoder, of Youngstown, and John H. Clark, of Columbiana, were also licensed to wed.

A marriage license has been issued to Clark N. Joseph, a stenographer, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Easterday of Lisbon. The young couple were married at the home of the parents of the bride Thursday evening by Rev. O. J. Harvill, pastor of the Reformed church, and a wedding dinner was served. Mr. Joseph is the manager of a chain store in Salineville, where the young couple will reside.

Literary Society

The Salem Business college has organized a literary society with Charles Wirsching president and Miss Esther Rogers, secretary.

A program was given Friday afternoon at the college. Rev. C. E. Harvill, pastor of the First Friends church, gave a splendid talk on "Life."

For each letter in this word he took another word and applied it to life. The words he used were "Light, Inspiration, Fellowship and Example." Here are the other numbers on the program.

Vocal solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," Lamorne Derr, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Edgar Derr, reading, "The Raggedy Man," Miss Alice Heckert; vocal solo, "I Dreamed I Dwell in Marble Halls," Miss Esther Rogers, reading, "The War Mother," Miss Jennie Shane; piano solo, Miss Elizabeth Saunders. The society plans to have a Christmas program.

Mah-Nah-Bee-Zee Class
Appointments, in keeping with Thanksgiving were used with pretty effect when Miss Mary Oesch was hostess to members of the Mah-Nah-Bee-Zee class of the Presbyterian church at a 6:30 o'clock dinner Friday evening at the Quaker Tea House, McKinley ave.

After the dinner the girls went to the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. Frank Smith, Goshen ave., where a business session was held, following which games and music provided amusement. Mrs. Weaver was an invited guest. On Dec. 18, the members will meet again.

Home Circle

Home Circle members were guests of Mrs. Maria Sproat Friday afternoon at her home, Ellsworth ave.

Recently this circle sent children's garments, flour, comforters and one quilt to the New York Home for the Friendless.

At the social period Miss Ella Strawn contributed a reading, "Thanksgiving Ann."

No meeting will be held in December and for the January meeting the members are invited to the home of Mrs. Anna Starbuck, Ellsworth ave.

A Venison Dinner

Dr. P. C. Hartford, of East Palestine, who recently returned from a hunting trip in Canada, furnished the venison for a very enjoyable dinner at the Salem City hospital Thursday evening.

The guests were members of the hospital staff, the nurses of the hospital and a few other friends. Mrs. Lake of East Palestine, entertained with readings.

Hosts to Choir

On Friday evening the choir of the First Baptist church was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snyder at their home, Damascus rd.

Some time was spent in practice and vocal solos by Charles Shiner were appreciated. Games and a lunch contributed to the evening of pleasure. The guest list included the husbands and wives of the members.

Gowans-Boies

Relatives here have received announcement of the marriage of Miss Jean Gowans and Robert Carey Boies of Denver, Colo., which was an event of last February.

Mr. Boies is a grandson of J. C. Bolger, this city. The young people are making their home with his mother, Mrs. Janet Bolger Boies, who is a former Salem resident.

At Crawford Home

Cards were the chief pleasure when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crawford entertained a few of their friends Friday evening at their home, near the New-garden rd. The hostess served a delicious lunch. Among the guests were: Mrs. Norma McGhee and daughters Ruth and Marjorie, of Summitville.

Martha Washington Club

Mrs. W. L. Fultz received her associates of the Martha Washington club Friday afternoon at her home, North Union st. The hours were enjoyed at visiting with needlework and the hostess served a lunch. On Dec. 4, the members will be guests of Mrs. Sidney Carle, East Fourth st.

Entertains Grid Squad

Chris Zelle, star guard of the Schaefer Billards football team, entertained members of the team Friday evening with a venison banquet. Zelle spent several weeks in Canada hunting and sent back two big deer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Steward of South Union st. expect to leave Monday evening for Miami, Fla., where they will visit their son, R. J. Taylor and family.

Mrs. Mary Franco, of Columbiana was at the Salem City hospital for x-ray treatment.

Dinner For Officers

Officers for 1935 of Salem chapter No. 334, Order of the Eastern Star, were guests at a lovely dinner given by Mrs. J. H. Campbell, the retiring worthy matron, at 6:30 p. m. Friday at Wander Inn, Lincoln ave. Yellow was the predominating tone in the decorations and baby hains were the favored flower.

Contests helped to make the after dinner hours enjoyable and in these the honors went to Miss Myrtle Windie, Mrs. Marguerite Harroff, Mrs. Andrew Stewart, Miss Nellie Kelley and Mrs. E. E. Enderlin.

B. G. Club

Three new members were added to the B. G. club of the English Lutheran church at a meeting Friday evening at the church.

It was decided to entertain the Snyder A. C. football team at an oyster supper, but the date for the event is not set.

Games were a pastime and Mrs. DeWan, mother of Albert DeWan, the host, served a lunch.

At the next meeting the third Friday in December a covered dish supper will be a feature. This will be for the members.

Gold Star Social

Members of the Gold Star auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars and their families enjoyed a social time together Friday evening, when games and music entertained. Violin selections by Vern Morningstar, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Hinkley, were appreciated.

A feature of the occasion was a linen shower for Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Williams, who were married recently.

Bachelor Girls

Misses Beulah and Dorothy Carnes entertained members of the Bachelor Girls club at their home, East Fifth st., Friday night. Games and contests added to the merriment. These contests were won by Catherine Catton and Mildred Hannay. Twelve were seated at the table for lunch, the table being decorated with Thanksgiving favors. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Catherine and Dorothy Catton, Jennings ave.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jessup and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, returned Friday night from a trip to Brooklyn, N. Y., and other points, where Mr. Jessup went on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenkins went to Louisville Friday evening to attend a Chinese opera.

BUILDING FALLS, BURYING 10 MEN

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—One man was missing, two were believed dying and eight were seriously injured, when part of the building occupied by the Kensington Upholstering company in North Philadelphia, collapsed shortly after noon today.

The men were shoring up the building according to authorities, when one of the wooden beams gave way, causing part of the structure to collapse, burying the ten men beneath it.

BARN HOLDS 3,600 BOTTLES OF BEER

Barn Used As Warehouse By Lorain Smuggling Ring Police Believe

Lorain, Nov. 21.—Thirty-six hundred more bottles of beer and ale were taken from a barn near the Lake Shore, west of Lorain today, after police and deputy sheriffs had watched the barn throughout the night in the hope that an attempt might be made to remove the contraband.

Authorities believe the barn was used as a warehouse by the smuggling ring uncovered yesterday, which, they say, has been using Lorain as a base for distribution of booze over Ohio by airplane, automobile and speed boats.

The barn is not far from where an abandoned run runner was found beached yesterday. There were only five cases of beer in the boat, but hundreds of others were found hidden along the beach.

Authorities believe the removal of United States rum chasers from the lakes is responsible for efforts of rum runners to ship in as much booze as possible before cold weather closes the lakes.

Famous Painting of Christ Is Purchased

New York, Nov. 21.—The sale of Titian's famous painting, "The Temptation of Christ," to the Minneapolis Institute of Arts was announced today by the Bonharts galleries.

The picture, valued at $200,000 will be taken to Minneapolis after being placed on exhibition here Dec. 5.

The sale is one of the largest in the history of American museums. The painting portrays Christ challenged by a youth to perform the miracle of turning a stone into bread.

Sees Porch Climber Through His Mirror

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 21.—Seeing the face of a porch climber reflected in the mirror while he was shaving, Charles W. Franklin quietly went down stairs, with a revolver to capture the intruder. Meanwhile, the keeper slid down from the porch and was making his escape when Franklin shot at him. The man escaped.

Auto Plunges Into River, Man Drowned

Detroit, Nov. 21.—The bodies of Edward J. Byrne, 38, of Washington, D. C., and Frederick R. Worden, 35, were recovered from the Detroit river today after an automobile in which they were riding had plunged off a lock into 25 feet of water.

New National Guard Armory Is Dedicated

Columbus, Nov. 21.—Gov. Donahue accompanied by his military staff including Adj. Gen. Henderson and other Ohio National Guard officials, today are taking part in the dedication of the new National Guard Armory at Youngstown.

Stephenson Begins His Life Sentence

Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 21.—D. C. Stephenson, former Ku Klux Klan dragon arrived at the state prison here today to begin serving his life sentence for the murder of Madge Oberholzer of Indianapolis.

57 Traffic Deaths

Akron, Nov. 21.—Summit county's 1935 death toll in auto accidents reached 57 today with the death of Miss May M. Williams, 24, who was fatally injured as she tried to cross the street last night.

Stage Star Dead

New Canaan, Conn., Nov. 21.—Funeral arrangements were to be made today for Clara Morris, 79, noted emotional actress who died here yesterday of heart failure. Miss Morris, once the greatest actress of her day, had been failing for several years.

200 GARMENTS TO BE DISTRIBUTED BY WINONA GUILD

Nearly 200 garments were on display at the annual meeting of the Winona Needlework guild held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilson Steer, Winona. Each member contributes two new garments.

Captain Raymond Hockstra, of the Salem Salvation Army, told of the needs of the people in this vicinity, and Mrs. Anna Forsythe, of Newtown Square, Pa., talked about the national convention of Needlework Guilds held last spring at Philadelphia.

A letter was read from Miss Ruth Beach, of the Salem chapter, American Red Cross, in regard to placing the garments donated by the guild last year and she also told of some of the needs to be filled this year.

Last year the guild donated garments to the Red Cross, hospitals and the Salvation Army in Salem.

The executive committee and directors will meet the first week in December to decide where to give the garments. Some will be reserved for an emergency chest.

2 MEN SHOT DOWN IN GROCERY STORE

Youngstown, Nov. 21.—Police are without a clue in connection with the slaying late last evening by an unknown assailant of two foreigners, Michael Protich, 43, grocer of Waverly ave., and Anthony Parent, 23, in the store at the time, were shot to death.

Peck Garnet, known in pugilistic circles as "Pal Kansas," conversing with the other two, escaped by running through the back door, although the assassin shot at him twice.

TWO MEN BURNED TO DEATH IN BED OTHERS RESCUED

Cleveland, Nov. 21.—Two persons were burned to death and two others had a narrow escape when fire destroyed one home at 2442 North ave., and almost destroyed two others.

Frank Conney, 32, and John O'Boyle 30, were found burned to a cinder in their beds, when firemen summoned to the blazing structure had entered the building.

Patrick Fleming, 70, who lived nearby was saved from a like fate when Harold Weber, driver for battalion chief, Michael Fallon, broke down the door of his home and carried him to safety. Miss Kate Masterson, 75, another neighbor, was awakened by the fire licking its way up the stairway of her home and ran from the house just in time.

Authorities believed the fire had started from an oil lamp left burning in the house.

VETERANS NIGHT RECALLS BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG

An address by Judge Lodge Riddle, a musical program, and a social period and lunch were enjoyed by the Sons of Veterans and their guests, members of Trexcott post, G. A. R., at the veterans night meeting Friday night in G. A. R. rooms. Event was for the observance of the battle of Gettysburg.

Thirteen members of the Grand Army were present and nearly all gave short talks and remarks. S. N. VanBlaricom responded to these talks for the Sons of Veterans. Harry Lottman played two saxophone solos. Among the visitors from out of town were two members of the Youngstown camp and one from East Palestine. The program was in charge of Commander Willard Yentling of the S. of V. camp.

WOMAN IS FINED FOR SHOPLIFTING

Mrs. Aramenta Dates, of Alliance, a widow, who was arrested here Friday for shoplifting in the Murphy and Spring-Holzwarth stores, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Mayor George E. Russell Friday night, and the mayor fined her $25 and costs, which she paid.

The woman left for Alliance at once, and on her arrival there Alliance police took her into custody for shoplifting in the Spring-Holzwarth store there. She will face a charge of larceny in that city today.

Murphy store clerks caught the woman in the act of taking goods off the counter and placing them in her handbag.

Mayor Russell ordered the woman to pay for all goods she took from both stores, which she did, and the stores then allowed her to keep the merchandise.

Painleve Cabinet Facing New Crisis

Paris, Nov. 21.—The Painleve cabinet appears to be rapidly approaching a new crisis.

Although the financial program presented by Premier Painleve has succeeded in making the first hurdles in its progress through the Chamber of Deputies, the margin of safety has been small enough so that it now appears very doubtful whether the measure can be passed.

Trouble will certainly arise when the vital portions of the bill, providing for heavy direct taxation upon real estate and property, are taken up.

Driver Asleep, Auto Strikes Trolley Car

Westerville, O., Nov. 21.—Four Summit county football fans, driving to Columbus to see Red Grange in action, were painfully injured near here early today when the driver of a machine, Howard Carey, 20, R. F. D. 5, Akron, fell asleep and the machine crashed into an interurban car.

HOLD GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBLE FOR RADIO TROUBLES

Most of Code Interference Comes From Big Government Stations.

Washington, Nov. 21.—With the government itself responsible for a considerable percentage of the interference that almost nightly distorts radio programs into a jumble of squeals and code signals, demand has been filed with the Department of Commerce that steps be taken to rid the air of this serious impediment to reception, it was learned today.

An investigation by radio experts has placed responsibility for most of the code interference upon the navy, army and postoffice broadcasting stations.

These stations operate in many sections of the country, but the chief obstacles to good reception have been experienced in the east, the vicinity of the Great Lakes, on the Pacific coast and in the Panama Canal zone. The powerful Arlington and Annapolis naval stations and most of the other navy and army stations transmit code messages via high wave lengths, and the series of harmonics that are created being responsible for interference on a number of important wave lengths between 200 and 600 meters.

East of the Mississippi the principal code interference is met on the broadcasting waves, of nationally known stations including KDKA of Pittsburgh; WSAI of Cincinnati; WWJ of Detroit; KYW of Chicago and KSD of St. Louis, according to reports to the department.

Experts at the Bureau of Standards have discovered that by certain improvements on broadcasting apparatus harmonics may be trapped out, or reduced to a minimum. In meeting the harmonic problem lies the solution of clearing the air of a serious source of interference.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS 1, HURTS 4

Martins Ferry, Nov. 21.—One man is dead, and four persons injured as a result of a gas explosion in a residence here last night.

P. J. Donahue, 22, who was buried beneath the debris, in the basement of his sister-in-law's store when the explosion occurred last midnight, died this morning. The injured are recovering.

The explosion was followed by fire which resulted in an estimated loss of $35,000.

Plan Rabbit Dinner As Hunters Set Out

The organization here known as Yellow Dogs divided into two companies Saturday afternoon and went hunting. A prize is offered to the one getting the most rabbits.

On Monday evening the organization will hold a rabbit dinner at the Macabee hall for the members, their families and invited friends.

Robert Cox, of New Philadelphia, will be toastmaster. An orchestra will play for dancing.

GEN. ELY SPEAKS AT DEDICATION OF BIG STADIUM

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 21.—A solemn warning against the dangers of unpreparedness was sounded today by Maj. Gen. H. E. Ely, at the dedication of the Indiana university memorial stadium.

"We should on no account permit our own peaceful desires to lead us into a trap of helplessness that would be fatal to the very peace we wish and intend to secure," he said.

"We now have a national defense system, but owing to the necessity of tax reduction, appropriations are not sufficient to fully carry out its purpose. I would say that this great memorial stadium, honoring our heroic dead, should constantly remind the living that, proud in their liberties and determined to maintain their rights, they must maintain their country in a state of adequate preparedness."

Generally Ely paid a tribute to the 2800 Indiana university students who served in the World war, 64 of whom were killed.

AJAX ON DISPLAY AT COLLIER ROOMS

The curtain of mystery is now drawn from the new Ajax Six, revealing a car whose outstanding characteristic is quality.

The Collier Auto Co., Ajax dealers for Salem, now has this car on display at the showrooms on Main st.

Notable among the many features it presents are a seven-bearing crankshaft, force-feed lubrication to all main bearings, connecting rod bearings, and camshaft bearings, four-wheel brakes, full balloon tires, richly distinctive body lines, and superb workmanship in every detail.

The introduction of the Ajax has been eagerly awaited by the automobile industry as well as many thousands of automobile buyers who have followed the unusual manufacturing record of C. W. Nash. This new car is regarded as the crowning achievement of his career. It is built by the Ajax Motors company, subsidiary to Nash Motors, and those who have had an opportunity to see it and drive it state that it is a contribution to the motor car industry of vital importance.

Lacking Sweetheart, She Wanted To Die

New York, Nov. 21.—Edith Silverman, 26, a Russian garment worker who took poison because she "never had a sweetheart like the other girls," burst into tears at Bellevue hospital today when physicians told her she would live.

SCHAFERS PRIMED FOR SUNDAY GAME

Old Rivals Will Meet At Sebring; Hard Contest Confronts Salem

A revival of the old Salem-Sebring athletic feud will be staged at Sebring Sunday when the Schafers Billiards will display their wares against Eddie Howell's well known pottery gridders, the Sebring Independents.

Manager Joe Kelley of the Schafers would like to have booked the game for Salem, but the matter of expense played a prominent part in the negotiations. Salem fans have been liberal in their presence, but far from liberal in their financial support of the Schafers this season, and about the only time the team can get an even break is when an out of town game is played.

At Sebring a private field is used, about which is a fence that excludes the boys who don't have or don't want to pay the accustomed yen. As a consequence a smaller city is able to support its team in the manner in which it should be backed. Sebring can afford to pay the Schafers a higher guarantee than the Schafers can pay Sebring.

The full squad will be taken to Sebring, Kelley stated Saturday, and he hopes to use everyone at least a part of the time. Believing they are above the players who must practice, a lot of the Billiards never appear at regular scrimmage sessions, so Sunday's games is the last good scrimmage for the Thanksgiving Day affair here with Lisbon.

Hogge, former Toronto Tigers' quarterback, and one time a member of the Canton Bulldogs and Akron Pros, will be the signal barker and director of attack for Sebring. For that reason the Salem eleven may expect to face not only a fancy bunch of plays, but some real ground gainers as well, and Howell promises to make the Schafers sit up and take notice.

Roper Will Remain As Princeton's Coach

New York, Nov. 20. — Bill Roper, Tiger football coach, will remain at Princeton again next season despite his announced intention to retire after developing a championship team.

Roper had decided to quit after Princeton beat both Yale and Harvard this year, but he agreed to pilot the Tigers another year when pressed by Alumni at a dinner given him here at the Princeton club.

Roper and the entire Princeton team left for Cambridge today to witness the Yale-Harvard game.

2,500 Young Gobblers Are Moving Around Restlessly Today

Hatfield, Pa., Nov. 20. — In this town, the home of the Thanksgiving turkey, more than 2,500 billifert young gobblers, handsome hens and strutting "Toms," were moving around restlessly today here in the fields where every year for the last 20 years auctions have been held.

The edict went out that the bird which adorns the Thanksgiving day dinner table will cost no more than last year and may be slightly lower.

M. B. Benner, known as the "North Pennsylvania Turkey King," said that the first choice lots of turkeys, 25 in number, brought 46 cents a pound. Market figures about 11 cents added to the auction price will be market prices for dressed turkeys which would be 57 cents a pound.

COURT NEWS

Settlement Reached

After the case had been scheduled for trial, counsel for both the plaintiff and the defendant agreed upon a settlement in the case of Sarah Evelsizer, represented by Cochran & Cochran of East Liverpool and the Stark Electric Co., represented by Hart & Kohler of Alliance.

This action, which was entered in common pleas court March 25, last, was for $5,000 damage, for personal injuries. The entry discloses that the action has been settled, and at the costs of the defendant.

Appeal Oil Lease Cases

It has been indicated that the case of the Big Seven Oil & Gas Co., and H. H. Hyland Jr., against A. H. Woods and others, which was filed in common pleas court July 17 last for the purpose of obtaining an order for the cancellation of leases will eventually reach the court of appeals.

In common pleas court, No. 2, Judge John B. Worley has placed bond at $500 after both the plaintiffs and the defendants filed exceptions.

The case was submitted to the court on the pleadings and the evidence and the court held that the leases held by the plaintiff were valid and in full force and effect. However, the court held that the leases held on certain acreage by a defendant, Clyde Woods, void as against the plaintiff. The defendants were enjoined from interference with the plaintiff in possession and operation of the leases in question and held by it.

An order of court followed that the plaintiff is to pay $1,400 within 30 days for the cost of drilling and equipping the Woods well, but that the defendants A. H. and Ada Woods are entitled to royalty upon the terms of the leases held by them. The plaintiffs, however are entitled to the production from these wells, but subject to the royalty. The defendants have also been ordered to pay the costs.

All parties have filed their exceptions and have given notice of appeal, whereupon the court set the bond at $300.

Notice of Appeal

Notice of appeal has been given by counsel who argued the case of Meyrick E. Evans against Henry G. Phillips before Judge John G. Worley in common pleas No. 2.

In this case, which is one in foreclosure, the court held in the plaintiff on his claim that he is entitled to the premises sold to satisfy his claim. There was also a finding by the court for the defendants on their respective claims, and a deed of foreclosure was granted, to which the parties took exceptions. The appeal bond has been fixed at $300.

Judgments By Default

Two judgments by default have been rendered by Judge James G. Moore in common pleas No. 1 in actions filed by the Potters Saving & Loan Co. of East Liverpool against George A. Anderson. Foreclosure has been ordered, and in the former in a judgment for $2,604.31 was rendered.

Temporary Receiver

Sheriff George Wright has been appointed by the court as temporary receiver to take charge of property in dispute in the case now pending in common pleas court of Frank Yurkus against Pauline Leads and others. The plaintiff in this action claims $2,000 is due him by the defendants.

Divorce Decree

A decree of divorce has been granted Lizzie Fields against her husband, Thomas Fields, and Judge James G. Moore has dissolved the restraining order granted against the Peoples National bank of Wellsville at the time the action was filed June 15th last. In this case, the plaintiff sued for alimony and custody of children, and adultery was the grounds upon which the decree was granted. Fields is to pay his wife $5 per week for the support of minors, and the custody of the children has been placed with the plaintiff until further order of the court.

LEON GORDON TO APPEAR AT PARK IN WHITE CARGO

Leon Gordon, hero of the outstanding dramatic hit of the past two seasons, "White Cargo," produced by Earl Carroll, is now being presented in roll at the Park theatre, Youngstown, Ohio, for a three day engagement, beginning Thursday night, Dec. 3, with a popular priced matinee on Saturday.

This happy combination is being sponsored by Earl Carroll. Mr. Carroll is known to the theatre going public chiefly for his "Vanities," but a perusal of his life history will show that his first energies were devoted to the dramatic. He has achieved the tremendous hit that was attained by "White Cargo" earlier in his career. It is possible that the more commercial "Vanities" might never have been created.

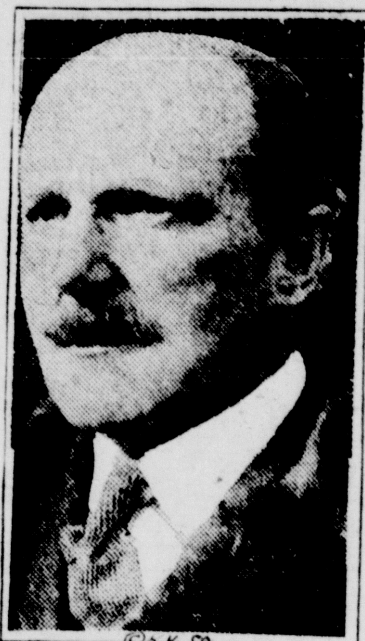

Mr. Gordon has a number of successes to his credit, but none has climbed the heights so rapidly or so renumeratively as has "White Cargo." Arrived at an enviable position as leading man for most of the stars, the success of "White Cargo" led Mr. Gordon to announce his retirement from the stage.

"White Cargo" deals with the struggles of the white man who dwell on the rough edge of civilization in tropical Africa, to wrest from the rank forests the rubber so necessary in our daily lives. Harassed by climatic conditions these men sometimes succumb to the moral decadence that sweeps up from the tropical jungles and the burning deserts.

The author contends that mind and heart are affected by the damp rot of the country, and in this vivid "portrayal of the primitive," as it has been termed, "White Cargo" set a new style in drama. It touches a very ticklish question of life as lived on the edge of Africa. It requires a master touch to avoid sensationalism, and this is attained by players of exceptional ability. These include Wallis Clark, Frederick Forrester, B. N. Lewis, James C. Carroll and picturesque native players headed by Chief White Hawk.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN "GOLD RUSH" HEADS NEW BILL

Salem movie fans may well grab their hats and be ready for the dash to Alaska with Charlie Chaplin next week. For Salem is to see the latest production, "with," written by and directed by Chaplin, which is "The Gold Rush." The Grand will show this picture the last four days of next week, and this comedy easily heads all theater programs here for next week.

Chaplin, the master, is a poor bum of the prospecting fields. He has put into the picture all the atmosphere of the famous gold rush, with everything that critics tell us it stands out as one of the greatest, and ranks among the leaders Chaplin has made, Mack Swain, that old time Keystone comedy star, is one of the chief players in "The Gold Rush."

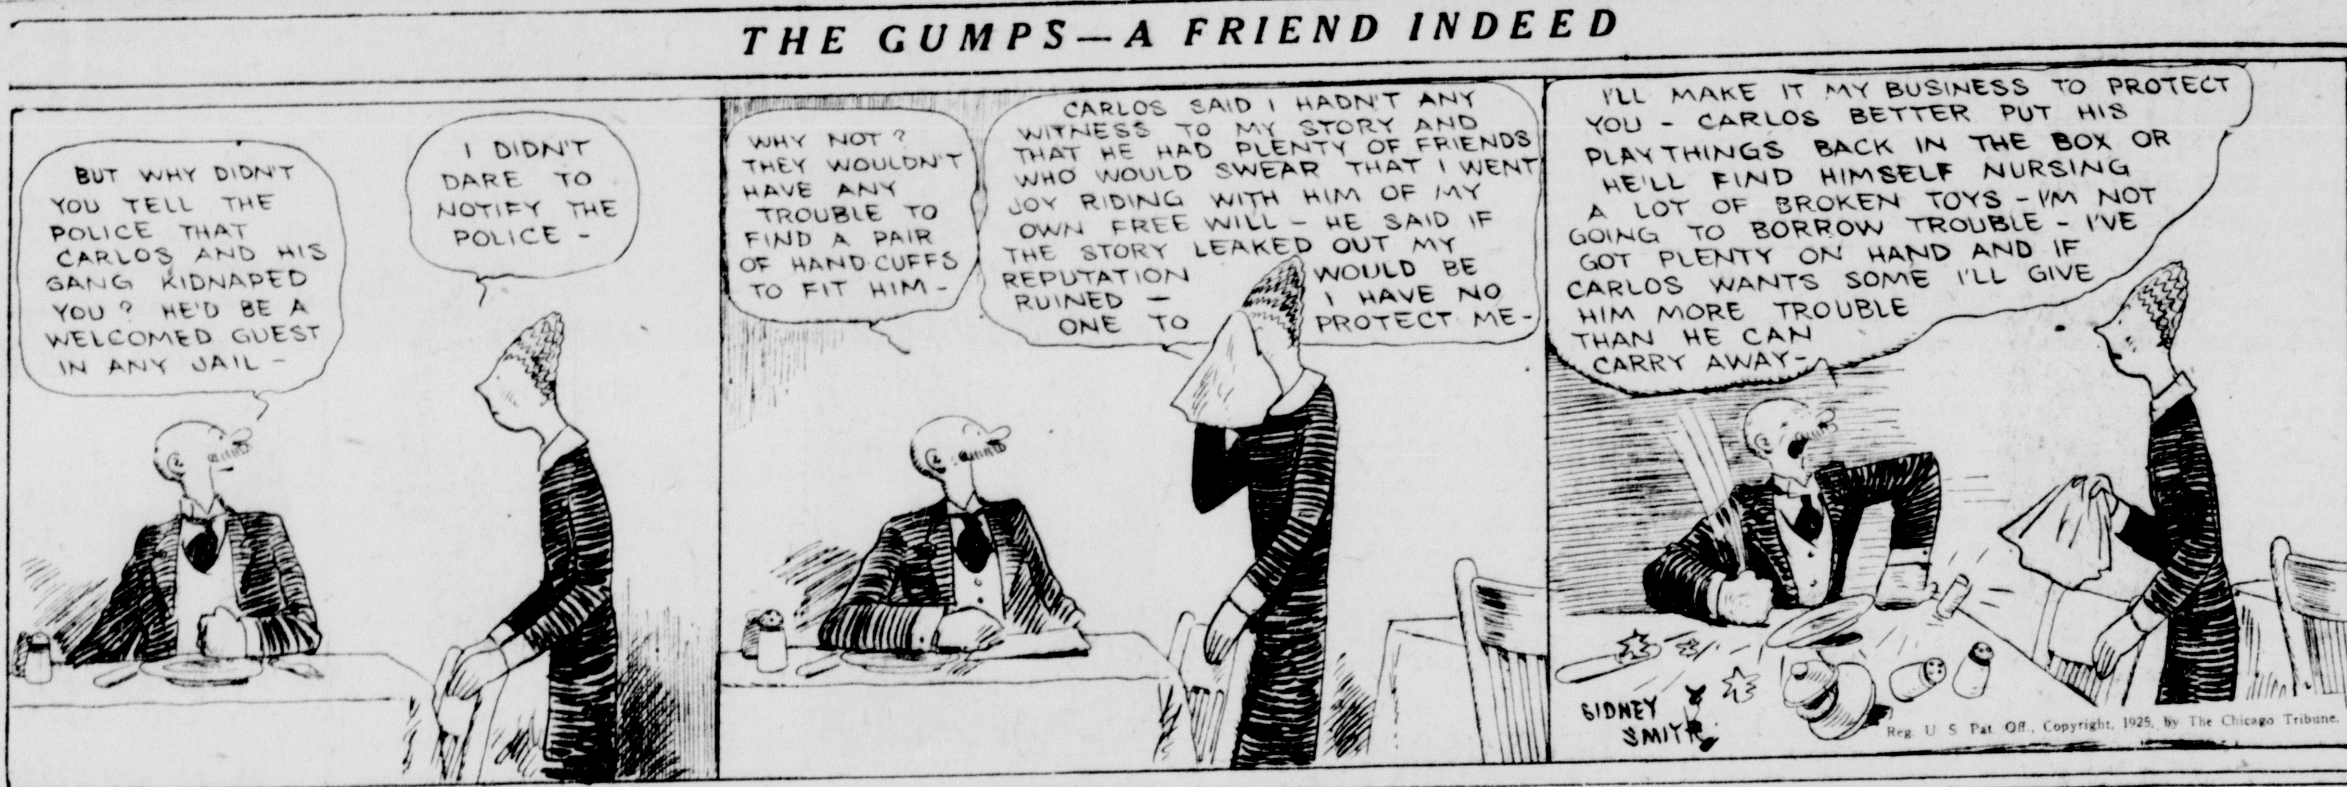

To start the week off at the Grand another comedy, of a different type, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," has been booked. This famous stage success of George M. Cohan's, with Douglas McLean as the screen star of it, will be presented Monday and Tuesday. McLean, that zesty type of hero, who is more of a live wire even than Johnny Hines, plays the part of a young author who has to write a novel in 24 hours to win the hand of the girl he loves, and goes to Baldpate Inn for that period to be in quiet. A gang of crooks makes it noisy instead, and the plot hinges on this.

Two Paramounts and a First National picture are on the bill at the State for next week. Monday and Tuesday "The Best People," a fast comedy of the smart set, and featuring such players as Warner Baxter, Esther Ralston and Kathryn Williams, will be offered. Here is a society thriller with the upper crust flappers and male climbers furnishing the excitement.

Wednesday and Thursday popular Jack Holt and little Billie Dove will be with us in James Oliver Curwood's timber land story, "The Ancient Highway." Holt is the hero, of course, who breaks up log jams, knocks out camp villains by the gross, and wins the timber land's beauty.

South Sea stuff is the basis of "The Half Way Girl" at the State the last two days of the week. Doris Kenyon and Lloyd Hughes have the chief roles. Miss Kenyon takes the part of a "private hostess" in a South Sea cafe, and is called a "half way" girl because she "gold-digs" as it were, the male sex without giving anything in return. A commendable supporting cast includes Hobart Bosworth and Tully Marshall.

Looks like a week of comedy and thrillers. The full bills follow:

STATE
Monday and Tuesday—"The Best People," society comedy-drama; Warner Baxter, Esther Ralston and Kathryn Williams; also an Our Gang comedy, "Better Movies."

Wednesday and Thursday—"The Ancient Highway," with Jack Holt and Billie Dove as hero and heroine of the north woods; Clyde Cook in a short comedy, "Should Sailors Marry."

Friday and Saturday—"The Half Way Girl," South Sea atmosphere, with Doris Kenyon and Lloyd Hughes; comedy, "John Paul Jones, Jr.," and a Fables, "Bugville Field Days."

GRAND
Monday and Tuesday—"Seven Keys to Baldpate," well known as a stage farce, and featuring Douglas Mc-

Lean; Educational comedy, "Slippery Feet."
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday—Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush," said to be his best picture.

TWICE IN THIS WOMAN'S LIFE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her from Sickness to Health

Ellensburg, Washington. — "When I was first coming into womanhood I suffered terribly every month. My mother did everything she could think of, so she took me to several doctors and they only helped me a little. Mother was talking to another lady about my condition and she told mother of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Mother got me six bottles and at the end of the first month I was much better, so I kept on taking it until I had no more pains. When I got married and had my first child I was in terrible pain so that it was impossible for me to do my housework. I thought of how the Vegetable Compound had been of so much benefit to me when I was a girl, so I went to Perier's Drug Store and got six bottles. It sure did help me and I still take it. I am a well woman today and I can't say too much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I will answer any letter that comes to me to answer about what your medicine has done for me." — Mrs. WILLIAM CARVER, R. F. D. No. 2, Ellensburg, Washington.

Everywhere ~ a Great Outpouring of Good Will Everywhere, the New Oakland Six is enjoying unprecedented demand. Everywhere, it is winning and holding increasing good will. And that is because it merits good will as no car in the field has ever merited it before.

Good taste has endowed the New Oakland Six with outstanding beauty. Skilled engineering has given it unequalled performance in its class.

Honest workmanship and fine materials have made it enduring. More than 100 improvements including Air Cleaner, Oil Filter, Four-Wheel Brake refinements and The Harmonic Balancer have established it as value without parallel.

True value never fails of recognition. In Oakland's case the reward has been quick and generous. It has come in a great outpouring of good will.

Keeping the Farmer's Books

At this time of the year the farmer is turning the efforts of his months of toil into cash. He then starts paying the obligations he has acquired during the cultivating period.

Since his money comes in large amounts it takes careful planning to portion it wisely.

We would suggest that you immediately open a checking account with us as the best way to accomplish this.

It will mean safety for your money as well as an exact record of your expenditures.

LEETONIA

On Friday morning the High school held a special "pep" meeting for the purpose of encouraging the football team for their encounters with Salem High on Saturday. Several numbers of songs were sung. A splendid talk was given by Don Hasbrouck. Edward Kunkle also gave a very good and encouraging talk. Supt. Stonebraker, Mr. Clemmerts and Coach Ray Whinnery gave short talks, as did several of the members of the team.

Capt. Myrtle Wilhelm and Lieut. Roma Degnan were present at the meeting of the Girl Scouts Thursday evening at the South Side school.

There was a fairly good attendance though the girls are not keeping up interest in the way the leaders wish. The contest for attendance, etc., should bring more of the girls out for the meetings. The regular opening service of the scouts was held with some songs and the usual closing, then adjournment until Thursday evening of next week.

Mrs. D. D. Shontz of Massillon and Mrs. K. R. Miller and son Jimmie of Canton, motored to Leetonia and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Groner. They returned to Massillon Friday afternoon and on Friday night Dr. and Mrs. Shontz with Mr. and Mrs. Miller motored to Columbus to attend the Ohio State-Illinois football game. Dr. Shontz is a graduate of Ohio State university.

Word was received here by friends of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Sharon Quigley of Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Quigley were former residents of Leetonia. Mrs. Quigley was formerly Miss Margaret Ryan.

Mrs. Anna Thrasher is serving on the jury in Lisbon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kelley and little daughter, Patricia Ann; Mrs.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is a Combined local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

TODAY'S RECIPES
Orange and Grapefruit—Halve one orange and one grapefruit, scoop out pulp with sharp orange spoon, cover with powdered sugar and let stand over night.

Scrambled Eggs with Onion—Slice six medium sized onions into skillet, add five tablespoons of water, cook until water is gone, then break three eggs into the onions, season to taste, cook three to four minutes, stirring constantly. Serve at once.

Potatoes and Carrots—Pare and slice three medium sized potatoes, two medium sized onions (may be omitted if disliked), two medium sized carrots. Cover with milk, add salt and pepper to taste and bake one hour or until done in slow oven. Fifteen minutes before done cover top with strips of bacon and turn up fire to crisp bacon.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes—Cut a hole in top, scoop out about three spoons from each tomato. Mix with equal quantity of stale bread crumbs, add a slice or two of onion (chopped), pepper and salt and a pinch of sage to each tomato. A pinch of sugar may be added, too. Pack tomatoes with this mixture, put small piece butter on the top and bake about 20 minutes in quick oven.

Pickup Pudding—Break five or six slices of old bread, cake or cookies into small pieces, add one egg, one-half cup raisins, dates or nuts and brown sugar to taste. More will be needed if bread alone is used. Cover with milk and bake one-half hour or until brown. A fruit sauce instead of cream may be used with this pudding if desired.

SUGGESTIONS

It is a good deal of work to cover and pad the ironing board, so it is best to have two extra ironing board covers which fit in place by means of an elastic or tape at either end. Two thumb tacks on each side will hold the edges taut. It is then only the work of a moment to take off or put on such an extra cover, and by having two there is always a fresh one in reserve.

Pillow slips that open at both ends launder more easily and wear longer.

A Free Baking Booklet

Some kind of bread is served on the average American table three times a day. The quality of that bread is an important matter. The food value depends on the materials which go into it, whether it is made at home or in the bakery. The Baking Booklet has been planned primarily as a guide in home baking, but through its discussion of materials it offers help also in the choice of commercial baked products.

This invaluable offering is a free government publication, and our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy for any reader who fills out and mails the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage. Write your name and address clearly.

The Grebe "Colortone"

hushes annoying sounds and allows notes of voice and instrument to reach you in full natural tones

It enables you to alter to your taste the quality or timbre of speech or music from high, thin pitch to low, deep, round tones. This receiver, unlike others, is not at the mercy of the loud speaker. The "Colortone" also helps to subdue to a great degree, the scratching, hissing, whistling sounds that are usually the bane of radio reception.

The "S's" and the "H's" are plainly audible; naturalness of sound replaces the artificiality which has heretofore interfered with radio enjoyment.

Do not miss a demonstration of this great Grebe innovation.

Two-Sided Frock Novel Creation

A new Parisian novelty creation is called the two-sided frock. The left side of the costume, including the sleeve, is of black satin, while there is a strip of white satin on the right. The right sleeve and collar and the skirt border are also of white satin.

Brush turkeys, natives of Australia are fully clothed in feathers when they hatch out of the egg and can fly within an hour of their birth.

LATEST IN STYLE FOR WOMEN

Paris, Nov. 21.—To be a regular girl this season the chic Parisian must don clothes that are more or less irregular.

Time was when a gown was a straight cubical affair with regular lines either vertical or horizontal. These days are over and fashion is now wandering around in notches, ripples, scallops, curves and of course the popular flares. The neckline, the hip-line and the hemline are doing things in their own sweet manner and every individual dressmaker of the capital is doing what she likes with the waistline.

Neck-lines come in diamonds, V-shaped, squares, rectangles, ellipses and every other form one can think of. The hip-line sometimes goes up in the front or dips at the sides or quite the contrary. It is sometimes low and sometimes high, always some kind of a fancy figure.

As for the hem-line no one can tell just what it will do this season. Callot is using it to describe beautiful curves going into some of her loveliest models and giving them the appearance of an inverted flower. Small diamonds or pearly dagger-points make lovely uneven hemlines and stately princess frocks have fluffily draped backs that dip or are lifted at the hemline or have magnificent gilded panels from the waistline that curve at the hem and make one think of the flutings on Botticelli ladies.

Even the hemlines of fur coats are scalloped. Some coats of such rare fur as ermine and sable are made with several scalloped tiers forming the skirt. The cutaway line is the most frequent of the uneven cuts. An unusual sports coat in Russian pony has deep pockets on the side which hang down and give the uneven line.

Persons who want anything know that The News is the Want Medium in this vicinity. So read it.
